1. Championship Ribs

Trigg's ribs have garnered him numerous awards and are a fan favorite. The secret lies in the combination of his special dry rub and slow cooking process.

Ingredients:

- Pork ribs
- Johnny's BBQ rub
- Apple juice

Instructions:

1. Remove the membrane from the back of the ribs.
2. Generously apply Johnny's BBQ rub on both sides of the ribs.
3. Wrap the ribs in plastic wrap and refrigerate for at least 4 hours, preferably overnight.
4. Preheat your smoker to 225°F.
5. Place the ribs in the smoker and cook for 5-6 hours, spritzing with apple juice every hour.
6. For the last hour, wrap the ribs in foil to retain moisture.
7. Remove from the smoker and let them rest before slicing.

2. Brisket with a Twist

This recipe showcases Trigg's unique take on traditional brisket, infusing it with flavor that is sure to impress.

Ingredients:

- Whole brisket
- Johnny's BBQ rub
- Mustard
- Beef broth

Instructions:

1. Trim excess fat from the brisket while leaving a thin layer for moisture.
2. Rub mustard all over the brisket, then apply Johnny's BBQ rub generously.
3. Let the brisket sit at room temperature for 30 minutes.
4. Preheat your smoker to 225°F and place the brisket fat-side up.
5. Cook for approximately 12-14 hours, spritzing with beef broth every hour.
6. Once the internal temperature reaches 195°F, wrap in foil and let it rest for at least an hour.

3. Classic BBQ Sauce

No barbecue feast is complete without a delicious sauce. Trigg's BBQ sauce is a perfect blend of sweet and tangy that complements any meat.

Ingredients:

- 2 cups ketchup
- 1/2 cup apple cider vinegar
- 1/4 cup brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tablespoon Johnny's BBQ rub

Instructions:

1. In a saucepan, combine all ingredients and bring to a simmer over medium heat.
2. Stir occasionally and let it cook for about 15-20 minutes to meld the flavors.
3. Allow to cool before using it as a marinade or dipping sauce.
