Basic Preparation Instructions

Follow these simple steps to prepare your Maruchan Instant Lunch:

1. Remove the lid: Open the cup by peeling back the lid carefully. Be cautious as the steam can be hot.
2. Add hot water: Pour boiling water into the cup until it reaches the fill line indicated on the inside. Make sure not to overfill, as this can cause spillage.
3. Cover the cup: Place the lid back on the cup to trap the heat. This step is crucial for allowing the noodles to cook properly.
4. Wait: Let the noodles sit for about 3 minutes. This duration is typically sufficient for the noodles to soften and absorb the flavors.
5. Stir: After 3 minutes, remove the lid carefully (watch out for steam) and stir the noodles well to mix the seasoning and ensure even flavor distribution.
6. Enjoy: Your Maruchan Instant Lunch is now ready to eat. You can enjoy it directly from the cup with a spoon or transfer it to a bowl if preferred.

Additional Microwave Preparation Instructions

If you don't have access to boiling water, you can also prepare Maruchan Instant Lunch in the microwave. Here's how:

1. Remove the lid: Open the cup by peeling back the lid, just as you would for the traditional method.
2. Add water: Fill the cup with water up to the indicated fill line.
3. Microwave: Place the cup in the microwave and heat it for 3-4 minutes, depending on your microwave's wattage. Be sure to watch it closely to prevent boiling over.

4. Stir: Carefully remove the cup from the microwave (it will be hot) and stir the noodles.
5. Let it sit: Allow the cup to sit for an additional minute to ensure the noodles are fully cooked.
6. Enjoy: Your meal is ready to be enjoyed!
