Jackson 5 Billboard Achievements

The Jackson 5's debut single, "I Want You Back," was a significant milestone in Michael Jackson's Billboard chart history, becoming the group's first number one on the Hot 100 in 1970. This success was quickly followed by other chart-topping singles such as "ABC," "The Love You Save," and "I'll Be There." These tracks not only dominated the pop charts but also performed exceptionally well on the R&B charts, reflecting the group's crossover appeal. Collectively, the Jackson 5 scored four number-one singles on the Billboard Hot 100 within a span of just over a year.

Solo Debut and Initial Chart Success

Michael Jackson's solo career officially kicked off with the release of his album "Got to Be There" in 1972.
