The Scarlet Letter, written by Nathaniel Hawthorne and published in 1850, is a seminal work of American literature that explores themes of sin, punishment, and societal judgment. Set in a Puritan

Massachusetts Bay Colony, the novel centers around Hester Prynne, who is condemned for adultery and forced to wear the scarlet letter “A” as a symbol of her transgression. The story delves into issues of morality, identity, and redemption, making it a profound exploration of human nature and social constraints.

Main Characters and Plot Summary

The novel’s primary characters include Hester Prynne, Reverend Arthur Dimmesdale, Roger Chillingworth, and Pearl, Hester’s daughter. The plot unfolds as Hester endures public shaming while Dimmesdale struggles privately with guilt, Chillingworth seeks revenge, and Pearl embodies both innocence and the consequences of sin. The narrative examines how each character copes with the consequences of actions and the complexity of forgiveness.
