

osrs 1 99 construction guide

OSRS 1 99 Construction Guide is your comprehensive roadmap to mastering one of the most rewarding skills in Old School RuneScape (OSRS). Construction allows players to build their own houses, furnishing them with various amenities that enhance gameplay. Whether you wish to create a stylish abode or maximize the benefits of your home, this guide will take you through every stage of your Construction journey, from level 1 to 99.

Why Train Construction?

Training Construction in OSRS offers several advantages, including:

- Customization: Create a personalized house with unique layouts and decorations.
- Teleportation: Set up teleportation devices to other locations, facilitating quicker travel.
- Skill Bonuses: Certain items and decorations give bonuses to other skills.
- Efficiency: A well-designed house can save you time during gameplay.

Getting Started with Construction

Before diving into the training methods, you need to understand the basics of Construction.

Requirements

- Gold: Construction is a costly skill. Accumulate a substantial amount of gold to buy materials.
- Materials: You will need planks, nails, and other building materials.
- House: You must purchase a house from an estate agent in a city like Varrock.

Setting Up Your House

1. Visit an Estate Agent: Speak to an estate agent to purchase your first house.
2. Choose a Location: You can choose from several locations, but the most common are Rimmington and Taverley.
3. Access Your House: Use the "House" option on your spellbook or the house icon on the map.

Training Methods for OSRS Construction

Now that you have your house, it's time to level up! Here are the most efficient methods to train your Construction skill from level 1 to 99.

Levels 1-15: Building Wooden Objects

The most straightforward way to start is by constructing wooden items.

1. Build a Wooden Chair:
 - Materials Needed: 4 planks.
 - Experience Gained: 20 XP per chair.
 - Total Chairs to Build: 20 chairs (4 planks each) to reach level 15.
2. Alternative Option: Build a Wooden Table:
 - Materials Needed: 1 plank.
 - Experience Gained: 10 XP per table.
 - Total Tables to Build: 50 tables.

Levels 15-30: Oak Furniture

Once you reach level 15, you can start using oak planks.

1. Build Oak Tables:
 - Materials Needed: 2 oak planks.
 - Experience Gained: 35 XP per table.
 - Total Tables to Build: 40 tables to reach level 30.

Levels 30-52: Teak Furniture

At level 30, teak planks become available, which offer better experience rates.

1. Build Teak Tables:
 - Materials Needed: 4 teak planks.
 - Experience Gained: 70 XP per table.
 - Total Tables to Build: 50 tables to reach level 52.

Levels 52-99: Mahogany Furniture

From level 52 onwards, mahogany furniture is the most efficient way to train.

1. Build Mahogany Tables:

- Materials Needed: 6 mahogany planks.
- Experience Gained: 125 XP per table.
- Total Tables to Build: 3,262 tables to reach level 99.

Alternative Training Methods

While the above method of building tables is the most efficient, you can also consider other training methods if you prefer variety or have different resources.

Building Other Furniture

- Make Oak Larders:
 - Experience Gained: 180 XP per larder.
 - Pros: Fast experience.
 - Cons: Requires level 33 Cooking to use.
- Constructing Oak Doors:
 - Experience Gained: 50 XP per door.
 - Pros: Easy to build.
 - Cons: Slower experience than tables.

Using the Dungeon

Once you reach level 60, you can build a portal to your house dungeon, which can be useful for certain training methods and high-level constructions.

Cost of Training Construction

Training Construction can be expensive, especially if you opt for mahogany tables. Here's a breakdown of potential costs:

1. Materials:

- Planks: Prices vary, but expect to pay several thousand gold per plank.
- Additional Materials: Nails and other items can add to your costs.

2. Estimated Total Cost:

- Training from 1 to 99 can cost anywhere from 10 million to 30 million gold, depending on market prices and your training choices.

Tips for Efficient Training

- Use the House Options: Utilize the house options in your settings to make building faster.
- Join a Clan: Joining a clan can provide support, tips, and shared resources.
- Watch for Market Fluctuations: Prices of materials can change, so buy when prices are low.
- Use the Construction Skillcape: Once you achieve level 99, consider wearing the skillcape for bonuses and aesthetic appeal.

Conclusion

The path to achieving 99 Construction in OSRS is not only rewarding but also opens up a world of customization and efficiency within your gameplay. By following this detailed OSRS 1 99 Construction Guide, you can streamline your training process and make the most of your resources. Whether you aim to create a cozy home or a functional base for your adventures, the skills you gain in Construction will enhance your overall gaming experience. Happy building!
