OSRS 99 Fishing Guide

Fishing is one of the most popular and relaxing skills in Old School RuneScape (OSRS). With the right strategies and knowledge, reaching level 99 Fishing can be an enjoyable journey. This guide will provide you with everything you need to know about training Fishing effectively, including gear recommendations, fishing spots, and efficient training methods.

Understanding Fishing in OSRS

Fishing is a gathering skill that allows players to catch various fish, which can be cooked for food or sold for profit. The skill is divided into several tiers, with different fish available at each level:

- Shrimp and Anchovies (Level 1-5)
- Trout and Salmon (Level 20-30)
- Tuna and Swordfish (Level 30-50)
- Lobsters (Level 40-73)
- Sharks (Level 76-99)
- Other fish like Manta Rays and Rocktail can also be caught at higher levels.

Each fish has its own experience value, and the method you choose will significantly affect your training speed and efficiency.

Getting Started with Fishing

Before diving into specific training methods, it's essential to gather the necessary equipment and understand the basics of Fishing in OSRS.

Required Equipment

To start fishing, you need the following:

- Fishing Rod: Required for catching fish like shrimp, trout, and salmon.
- Harpoon: Needed for catching tuna and swordfish.
- Net and Bait: Used for catching shrimp and anchovies.
- Fishing Gear: Upgrading your fishing gear can improve your efficiency.
- Fishing Trawler Gear: Useful for catching fish in the Fishing Trawler minigame.
- Angler's Outfit: Grants a bonus experience when worn while fishing.

Fishing Locations

Knowing where to fish can save you time and maximize your experience gains. Here are some popular fishing locations based on your level:

- Level 1-5:
 - Lumbridge Swamp: Fish shrimp and anchovies with a net.
- Level 20-30:
 - Barbarian Village: Fish trout and salmon in the river.
- Level 30-50:
 - Catherby: Great for tuna and swordfish using a harpoon.
- Level 40-73:
 - Karamja: Catch lobsters with a lobster pot or in the fishing spot.

- Level 76-99:
- Fishing Guild: Best for catching sharks.

Training Fishing to Level 99

Now that you have the basics covered, let's explore several training methods to reach level 99 Fishing efficiently.

Method 1: Net Fishing

Levels 1-5: Fishing Shrimp and Anchovies

- Equip a small fishing net and bait.
